Crested Butte, Colorado brings the wild west's history back to life... Located in Southwest Colorado, only 27 miles from the airport in the Gunnison National Forest and the Elk Mountain Range, Crested Butte has nearly 1,100 acres to ski and an average snowfall of 240 inches. Enjoy panoramic views and endless powder with groomed runs for all levels of skier and summit lifts to over 12,000 feet! Downtown Crested Butte is Colorado's largest National Historic Landmark District, originally settled in the 1880's as a mining supply camp--it is arguably the friendliest, most charming town in the Rockies. Named by Powder Magazine "Best Ski Town in North America", the locals just call it, "Colorado's last great ski town!" There are blocks of historic quaint shops, restaurants, and exquisite galleries with charming façades at every turn. Sample the thriving nightlife as well—the town comes alive for après ski—pubs, clubs, and microbreweries highlight the town nestled below towering peaks. Town shuttles depart every 15 minutes...Join us to this western frontier for some wild-at-heart adventure and see all the reasons many ski enthusiasts call Crested Butte their favorite destination!
